

Colossians 2:6-10

Walking Truth

We have received and continue to receive so much from being _____.

The logical result should be it showing up in our _____.

Colossians 2:6-7

In what ways might you need to begin living out the truth that you know? What might be the first step?

Human ideas are limited because they are _____. The truth found in Christ is _____, and so can be fully relied upon.

Colossians 2:8

How can you keep vigilant against human ideas that might draw you away from biblical truth?

Christ has the _____ to speak what is true and a track record of successes in our lives that make Him extremely qualified to be _____.

Colossians 2:9-10

How might you be tempted to trust in sources of truth apart from scripture? Is Jesus your ultimate standard of authority when it comes to truth?

We have benefitted from the wealth of truth found in Christ through scripture. It has been the source of incalculable transformations in the very foundations of our hearts and minds. The proper response is to follow transformed hearts and transformed minds with transformed lives.

There will always be those people in the world that are trying to make sense of things apart from Christ and the truth found in Him. We can be drawn into their ideas based on half-truths and appeals to fallen human desires, but they are ultimately empty, and should be guarded against. It is a far better thing to trust in the One who knows all and is above all. The truth found in Him is utterly sufficient.
