

Jesus was sent by God the Father to bring _____ upon those who reject Him and _____ to those who entrust themselves to Him.

In what ways have you seen Jesus breathe life into you?

In the future, Jesus will raise _____ from the dead, some to a resurrection of eternal _____, some to a resurrection of eternal _____.

In what ways have you seen "the good" come out in your life since following Jesus?

Four witnesses took the stand to prove that Jesus was from God: John the Baptist, the _____. He performed, God the Father, and the _____ scriptures.

The religious leaders had all the evidence they needed: John the Baptist's testimony, eye-witness proof of the signs, the voice of the Father, and the very Scriptures they committed their lives to studying. They missed the truth not because they lacked knowledge, but because they lacked love for God and were unwilling to surrender their own self-made glory to Jesus.

Jesus, the perfect Judge, leaves no ambiguity: there are only two paths and two corresponding resurrections. One path leads to the resurrection of life, reserved for those whose faith has transformed them into those whose deeds are performed in God by the Holy Spirit. The other path leads to the resurrection of judgment for those whose faith was merely intellectual assent. Our lives will tell that story long before the judge reveals His verdict.
