

Someone who has a relationship
with Jesus...

_____ what He has

_____ them to do.

:3-5a

*Why do you think so many people today feel comfortable calling Jesus
"Lord" without living as if He is?*

:5b-6

What is the difference between pursuing perfection and pursuing a pattern of Christ-likeness?

Someone
who has a
relationship
with Jesus...

_____ their life like Jesus would have _____ their life..

Someone
who has a
relationship
with Jesus...

shows Christ-like _____ to other
_____.

:7-11

What does it look like to love other believers "as He has loved us," and not just as we feel like loving them?

Everything Jesus was and was about can be summed up in one word: love. And everything His disciples are and are about can be summed up the same way. When we follow His instructions, we demonstrate our love for God. When we walk as He walked, we reflect His loving character. And when we love one another as He has loved us, we show the world that we are truly His disciples.

Anyone can say "I know Him." The question is whether our lives say it too. Do I follow His instructions when they go against my inclinations? Does my life show evidences of Christ's life? Do I love other believers the way He loves me? If the answer is yes, take heart, because that's the evidence of His light in you. If the answer is no, don't ignore it or downplay it. Fess up, turn to Him, and let Him begin to do the work He's always wanted to do in you.