_____ their ways and
_____ what God was doing in Jesus.

Jesus demonstrated His source and His authority through two supernatural moments enacted by two simple statements: "Go, your son is alive" and "Get up, pick up your pallet and walk." The responses to these moments were mixed. Some sought more evidence, some wanted to kill Him, but the only proper response was faith. This begs the question for us: Are we about clinging to our own ways and seeking Jesus on our own terms, or are we willing to lay it all down to accept Him on His terms and to entrust ourselves to God's perfect work in Jesus?
