

Welcome to UPPC!

If this is your first visit, we are so glad you are here. In fact, we believe God brought you here today! Take a few minutes to read this bulletin to find out about some of the ministries going on at the church - getting involved is the best way to meet people and connect. We'd also love to have you stop by the Welcome Center (just outside the Sanctuary doors) after service. There is someone available to answer questions about the church as well as let you know more about ministries and opportunities available for you and your family.

We hope this morning is meaningful and rejuvenating for you!

Dear Younger Me

Biblical Truth I Wish I Knew Earlier

November 17, 2019

In the words of Malachi 3 we read this incredible promise, "return to me and I will return to you." The Dear Younger Me series is an important conversation about wisdom we wished we'd learned earlier in our lives. Based on this week's scripture I will share something about money that I wish I'd learned so much earlier in life: I can trust God with my resources.

Once a year we set aside a time to invite everyone who calls UPPC home to consider committing a portion of your financial resources to provide for our many ministries. This is not an obligation; this is an invitation to invest with many others in extending our influence of God's great Kingdom work. These commitments help guide our elders as we plan for the UPPC Ministry Fund in the upcoming year. The Ministry Fund provides the financial resources which fuel nearly every UPPC ministry - here, in our community, and around the world.

The world needs the love of Jesus; and the opportunities for making an impact are growing. As your pastor and partner in Kingdom-building, I am asking you to prayerfully consider making a commitment to support our Ministry Fund in the next year. Every single gift matters, and next Sunday, November 24, we will be collecting these commitment cards as part of our worship service. Pray, reflect and show your younger self how much you have learned about trusting God with your resources!

In the journey together,

Pastor Aaron Stewart
