

WELCOME TO UPPC!

We believe God brought you here today! We are so glad, and we would love to meet you. Visit the Welcome Center just outside the Sanctuary doors to learn more about the ministry of UPPC, our community and opportunities to connect.

We hope your time with us today creates a meaningful encounter with Jesus.

Day Camp Ministry By Jenn Boucher

This summer will be our family's ninth year at UPPC Day Camp. My daughter went for the first time the summer before kindergarten and I began volunteering as a crew leader when my son was old enough to attend. My daughter now volunteers as a youth leader, and Day Camp is something we all look forward to doing together every summer. It's a tremendous amount of wild and crazy fun. The music, the skits, the games. (Let's not talk about how close I came to having a raw egg cracked on my head last summer!)

What I value the most, though, is the relationships that are formed - both between kids and between kids and adults. Volunteers get to step into the campers lives for a week and be the tangible love of God. They teach and share about God's love for us to kids that may not attend church regularly or haven't ever heard this message before. I've seen how my own kids have been impacted - how wearing a bracelet can help us "watch for God" and share these experiences with each other, and how fun "Bible Buddy" characters help them learn Bible verses and remember how much God loves us and takes care of us. I am so blessed to be a part of this amazing ministry each year!

The Good Life

New series on wisdom starts next week!

Among the Bible's many stories, laws and prophecies are a handful of books right in the middle known as wisdom literature. The Bible Project says, the wisdom books are, "The collected wisdom of generations of godly people [which] invite us to consider the complexity and simplicity of living wisely. Each of these books explores the same basic theme and question: What does it mean to live a good life?" As a thread runs throughout a tapestry, wisdom runs throughout the entire Bible and stitches together creation itself.

Join us this summer as we answer wisdom's call to consider important — and perplexing — questions.
