

Welcome to UPPC!

If this is your first visit, we are so glad you are here. In fact, we believe God brought you here today! Take a few minutes to read this bulletin to find out about some of the ministries going on at the church - getting involved is the best way to meet people and connect. We'd also love to have you stop by the Welcome Center (just outside the Sanctuary doors) after service. There is someone available to answer questions about the church as well as let you know more about ministries and opportunities available for you and your family.

We hope this morning is meaningful and rejuvenating for you!

JANUARY 6, 2019

Each year many of us sing "The Twelve Days of Christmas" as we approach December 25. But the traditional twelve days actually begin on Christmas day and conclude the evening of January 5 as the calendar approaches the celebration of Epiphany. As it's normally used, "epiphany" refers to "an illuminating discovery or realization." The Christian tradition is to commemorate the discovery of the Messiah by non-Jewish people, Gentiles, which is typified by the visit of the Magi. This event signifies the global audience for whom the good news of Jesus is intended.

In contemplating the Magi this year, it occurred to me that they must have been a very curious bunch. Curious enough to gaze at the night sky, exhibiting changes which are only noticeable to the most inquisitive and patient. Curious enough to investigate the meaning of the change they saw. Curious enough to venture westward, "following yonder star" to see if there was indeed a newborn king. As an adult, Jesus would meet more and more curious people who would wonder who he was, what he wanted, and how to understand his teaching. What can we learn from so many who have gone before us about being eager to know more about God, Jesus, and our role in the world?

In the light of God's grace,

Pastor Mike Moffitt
