Understanding Our Local Stories: Japanese Internment
TODAY | 2:30 - 4:30pm | The Wayside
This series on Peacemaking and Justice has helped us take a closer look at what God's peace and justice looks like. We will be practicing facing the truth together as we remember and learn about the Japanese Internment that happened in Tacoma. Register to join us at UPPC.org/events.

Food Bank Serve Day
November 21 | 10am-12:30pm | F.U.N. Food Bank
Join us to sort, pack and distribute food to families. Experience firsthand how providing food and resources in a safe, welcoming environment fosters community, well-being and self-sustainability. Learn more and register for this event and upcoming opportunities at UPPC.org/events.

An Intentional Season
November 29 | 5-7pm
Join us for An Intentional Season, a family formation worship and teaching opportunity for the whole family. Once a month, we will gather around tables for a meal, enjoy conversation with friends and spend time in worship as a whole family. Learn more and register for this event and upcoming sessions at UPPC.org/events.

You've Got Mail
Did you receive your Pledge Card and letter?
Pledge Cards for 2027 were mailed to households this week. Submit your pledge online at UPPC.org/give and set up online recurring donations at the same time, creating a regular practice of generosity. Then, next Sunday, November 22, bring your completed pledge card to services as a tangible expression of your commitment.

New Series for Advent
We are in the Presence of the King
Israel longed for a new kingdom—not merely a better political arrangement, but a world reordered by God's justice, peace, mercy and faithfulness. Isaiah gives us the vision of that kingdom. The Gospels show us the surprising people who encounter its King: people who are overlooked, afraid, displaced, spiritually hungry or simply going about their ordinary lives. And at the heart of it all is Emmanuel: God with us. Join us this season at UPPC!
