Parent Connect Opportunity with Tina Osterhouse

Wednesday, May 8 at 6:30pm | Sunday, May 19 at 12:30pm

Come and meet new Associate Pastor of Family Ministry Tina Osterhouse

Dear Parents,

I'm so glad that Spring is here. Flowers are blooming, the grass is growing, allergies are surging and the days are finally warming! It's a wonderful time of the year.

As you know, I'm brand new here. I've had several great days getting to know the staff, and now I'd like to meet you and put faces to names, hear about your lives and find out how I can support, pray, and minister to families at UPPC.

There will be two opportunities for us to connect. One on Wednesday, May 8 during evening youth programs and another on Sunday, May 19 after services. Join me for this time together over snacks or a meal so I can spend some time learning more about you.

Please register for the best time for you at UPPC.org/events. I look forward to meeting you all!

Warmly,

Pastor Tina

Growing Young

Complete the Survey in the lobby TODAY!

Last Sunday we introduced you to Growing Young! Whether you are 15 or 115 your input through a short survey is invaluable. Scan the QR code below with your smartphone or complete this 5 to 10 minute anonymous survey in the lobby after each service. The survey link also available on the homepage at UPPC.org/events.

The UPPC team has been meeting and exploring six essential strategies that will help young adults discover and love our church. The Growing Young Assessment (survey) is a tool that will provide vital insights about UPPC's relationship with young adults. This survey from the Fuller Youth Institute will gather the collective insights of our entire congregation and provide us with a true and accurate picture of this intergenerational connectedness.
