

A DIVINE REVELATION OF PRAISE II

PSALM 119

552

and will not be ashamed.
I enjoy obeying your commands,
which I love.
I praise your commands, which I love,
and I think about your demands.

Remember your promise to me, your servant;
it gives me hope.
When I suffer, this comforts me:
Your promise gives me life.
Proud people always make fun of me,
but I do not reject your teachings.
I remember your laws from long ago
and they comfort me, Lord.
I become angry with wicked people who do not keep your teaching.
I sing about your demands
wherever I live.
Lord, I remember you at night
and I will obey your teacher.
This is what I do:
I follow your orders.

Lord, You are my share.
I have promised to obey
you, to do what you want.
I have mercy on the wicked, but I think about your teachings, and I do not want to obey your commands.
Wicked people don't obey you,
but I have not forgotten you.
In the middle of the night,
you...

...our laws are right and good to everyone who obeys your commands.
Teach me your demands.
You have good things for your servants, as you have promised, Lord.
Teach me wisdom and knowledge
because I trust your commands.
Before I suffered, I did wrong,
but now I obey your word.
You are good, and you do what is good.
Teach me your demands.
Proud people have made up lies about me, but I will follow your orders with all my heart.
These people have no feelings.
They do not obey your teachings.

Give me understanding so I can keep your commands.

Let those who respect you know when they see me,

because I put my hope in you.

Lord, I know that your laws are right and that it was right for you to teach me.

Comfort me with your words,

as you promised my teacher.

Have mercy on me, what I may do.

I love your teachings.

Make proud people ashamed because they hate about me.

But I will think about your rules.

Let those who respect you return to me.

Let me learn your rules,

so I can walk away from your laws.

You yourself are my teacher.

Your rules are sweet to me,

like honey in my mouth!

They give me understanding,

like my ways.

They are like a lamp for my feet

and light for my path.

I will have promised your fair laws.

taught for a long time.

They are like your word,

my willing praise

for your laws.

I am in danger,

but I have forgotten your teachings.

You have set a trap for me,

but I have been saved from your orders.

Your rules forever,

make me happy.

What you demand is good.

Lord, you do what is right,

and your laws are fair.

The rules you commanded are right

and completely trustworthy.

I am so upset; I am worn out,

because my enemies have forgotten your

words.

Your promises are proven,

so I, your servant, love them.

I am unimportant and hated,

but I have not forgotten your orders.

Your goodness continues forever,

and your teachings are true.

I have had troubles and misery,

but I love your commands.

Your rules are always good.

Help me understand so I can live.

Lord, I call to you with all my heart;

Answer me, and I will keep your demands.

I call to you,

Save me so I can obey your rules.

I wake up early in the morning and my heart

I hope in your word.

553

I know your love to the very end,

and teach me your demands.

I am your servant. Give me wisdom so I can understand your rules.

Lord, it is time for you to do something,

because people have disobeyed your teachings.

I love your commands

more than the purest gold.

I respect all your orders,

so I hate lying ways.

Your rules are wonderful.

That is why I keep them.

Learning your words gives wisdom and understanding for the foolish.

I am nearly out of breath.

I really want to learn your commands.

Look at me and have mercy on me as you do for those who love you.

Guide my steps as you promised;

don't let any sin control me.

Save me from harmful people

so I can obey your orders.

Show your kindness to me, your servant.

Teach me your demands.

Tears stream from my eyes,

because people do not obey your teachings.

Lord, you do what is right,

and your laws are fair.

The rules you commanded are right

and completely trustworthy.

I am so upset; I am worn out,

because my enemies have forgotten your

words.

Your promises are proven,

so I, your servant, love them.

I am unimportant and hated,

but I have not forgotten your orders.

Your goodness continues forever,

and your teachings are true.

I have had troubles and misery,

but I love your commands.

Your rules are always good.

Help me understand so I can live.

Lord, I call to you with all my heart;

Answer me, and I will keep your demands.

I call to you,

Save me so I can obey your rules.

I wake up early in the morning and my heart

I hope in your word.
