Quantum Level

The Observer Effect

In quantum physics, observing something can change its behavior, like turning a wave into a particle for things like electrons, photons, and atoms.

New Find in The Observer Effect:

Later discoveries showed that the light or energy used to 'see' a tiny particle actually bumps into it, causing it to behave differently.

Fix

- to turn the eyes away from other things and fix them on something... Consider attentively

What do you allow to form your opinion?
What You Behold... You Become...

CLOSING THOUGHTS:

- God revealed Himself to Moses as I AM because of the context His people had been in bondage for 400 years
- Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were the references on how God can provide and make one self sufficient.
- After being in slavery depending on rulers to provide, how could we ever have our own land and be self sufficient?
- The I AM appears and said despite what you've been through - I AM the same God that provided for Abraham, Isaac, & Jacob. I AM a covenant keeping God.
- 400+ years doesn't change my nature... I AM THAT I AM - Believe me, not your experience... Give me your yetzer...
