MAIN POINTS, DEFINITIONS & APPLICATION

- In Hebrew culture - When they hear “sacrifice” they hear purity, beauty, perfection, holiness, mercy
- In Western Culture - When we hear “sacrifice” we hear inconvenience, letting go of/losing something, or death to something.
- The “sacrifice of praise” is the lifting up of pure, carefully crafted words of adoration and admonishing, from a state of reflection on the goodness and holiness of God, based in fear.
- The sacrifice of praise is not a sacrifice for me...it’s a sacrifice from me.
- Ritual sacrifices were often rigorous, intentional, detail-oriented, life or death matters. When presenting an offering to God, the hope was that it would be “acceptable” to Him and up to His standards.
- Jesus is not only the Lamb of God because He’s God’s son, but because He was God’s carefully chosen, pure, precious sacrifice, presented to us on the altar of the cross, so we might receive/accept Him, His love and all that results from Oneness with Him.
- Sacrifice requires death but we’re called to be a living sacrifice. Jesus died a physical death so that we don’t have to!

ASK YOURSELF:

- Have I received and accepted God’s sacrifice?
