

Revelation 14

We know how the story ends

A. Facing uncertainties/unknown outcomes

1. What kind of things do people face where there are uncertainties?
 - a. What kind of things have you faced where the outcome was uncertain and what did God do?
2. What is the significance of Jesus standing on Mount Zion?
 - a. What does that mean for the 144,000 who are standing with Him on Mount Zion?
3. Every believer faces spiritual battles.
 - a. What are some of those battles?
 - b. Every believer will lose some battle.
 - 1) What does Satan want us to believe when we lose a battle?
 - 2) How does seeing Jesus standing on Mount Zion help us to overcome?
 - c. Why is it important that believers accept they are victorious regardless of how they feel?
4. How do the 144,000 survive the tribulation period?
 - a. How can that encourage us?

B. Because we know how the story ends

1. How does this help us resist temptation?
2. Song – “I will follow you”
 - a. How does this help exemplify the words of that song in our live?

3. How does this help us speak truthfully, but lovingly?
4. How does this help us to be blameless in our lives?
5. How does this help us to stand firm no matter what comes our way?

C. First angel

1. Why is it important that we remember that the gospel message doesn't change?
2. Why do we not have to worry about being relevant with the gospel and the word of God?
3. How is it possible to relate to someone who has made different life choices than you?
4. When ministering to others
 - a. Rather than focusing on our delivery, we should focus on what?

D. The third angel

1. What have those who take the mark of the beast chosen?
2. How does taking the mark of the beast affect those who receive it, both on earth and eternally?
