

For Class Interaction and Discussion

Lesson Outline

1. Introduction:

2. A Heart Affected by Truth:

- What made Rahab different?
- Her faithful obedience saved her

3. Rahab Moved with Conviction:

- Faith has always been an expensive commitment
- Confidence in God leads to bold action

4. God Can Save the Worst of Sinners:

- Here we see a wonderful example of grace
- We cannot underestimate the power of the gospel

5. What About Her Lie?

Thought Questions for Discussion

1. What can we learn from Rahab's transformation and her inclusion in Christ's genealogy?
2. How can the truth affect our hearts and lead to genuine repentance?
3. What motivates people to resist repentance even when confronted with the truth?
4. What does Rahab's courage and commitment teach us about unwavering faith?
5. How does the power of the gospel manifest in the transformation of sinners like Rahab?
6. How should we approach ethical dilemmas like Rahab's lie considering biblical principles?
7. What lessons can we draw from Rahab's story about the rewards of faith and God's grace?

Hebrews 11.31

31 By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had received the spies in peace

Group Activity

Reflect on the ethical dilemmas presented in the lesson and discuss how we should apply the principle that scriptural approval of righteous deeds doesn't endorse all actions. How should we proceed when we face ethical challenges?

Rahab's story is a testament to bold faith in the face of adversity. In your group, discuss ways to encourage one another to step out in faith, how to develop trust in God during challenging situations, and to be more willing to make sacrifices for the sake of your faith.

Walking with God Today

Rahab's journey from a sinful past to a place of honor and dignity within God's plan demonstrates the incredible power of faith. Her story reminds us that no one is beyond redemption, and what God promises is truly excellent and glorious. Use Rahab's courage and commitment to inspire you to submit to God's truth and embrace a life of faith.