

The Kingdom Goes Home

Lesson for November 30 – Jim Grushon

Introduction:

We have spent a lot of time emphasizing the eternal nature of God's kingdom and those who have been part of it throughout history. However, Jesus taught that the eternal Kingdom and its nature would also be present among them in a physical sense—an earthly kingdom with spiritual principles that they could see and participate in while living in the physical world. While the church is not the entire concept of the Kingdom of God, it is a real part of that kingdom.

It represents the fulfillment of God's promise through the prophets and is home to those who, through Christ, have entered the eternal kingdom. We will conclude our study by examining the physical aspect of the kingdom as seen in the church and the body's destination in the eternal kingdom.

Our Final Destination:

- I. Old Testament Prophecy relating to the kingdom upon the earth.
  - A. The victorious conqueror of Satan:

And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

2. Micah 4:1: But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it.
