
THE GENEROUS LIFE
living & giving God's way

"You don't have to love to read to commit a word to memory, you just have to love what Jesus said enough to write it down."

- Pastor Jarod Smith -

“When was the last time you wanted to remember something Jesus said badly enough that you actually wrote it down?”

- Pastor Jarod Smith -

"Devils don't like rooms filled with the Word of God; a lie has no where to sit and get comfortable if there's standing room only."

- Pastor Jarod Smith -

"It is difficult to obey what you cannot remember; it's impossible to remember what you don't know."

- Pastor Jarod Smith -

"When you elevate one truth and suppress another you end up with a false gospel."

- Pastor Jarod Smith -

"It's not the atheist that threatens the faith, it's the believer that preaches a different Christ."

- Pastor Jarod Smith -

“From the perspective of historic Christian orthodoxy, the decisive question isn't whether someone identifies as progressive or conservative. It's whether they regard Scripture as authoritative even when its teachings conflict with their preferences.”

- Pastor Jarod Smith -

"We cannot claim allegiance to the authority of Jesus while refusing the authority of the Scriptures He affirmed."

- Pastor Jarod Smith -

"Transformation is more than a daily devotional in the word. It's bringing the daily sacrifice of your life as well."

- Pastor Jarod Smith -
