

LEARNING FROM HIS STORY

1. In 2:15, what could the “little foxes” represent, and why are they so dangerous to a relationship?
2. Verse 7:13 describes intentional investment. What are the most important ongoing investments for a relationship to stay vibrant over time?
3. Verse 8:6 speaks of jealousy in love. In what sense is jealousy just & right in the context of a committed relationship like marriage?

EXAMINING OUR OWN STORY

4. What are the “little foxes” that have proven peskiest in your relationship experiences?
5. In seasons where your investment in a relationship is running low, what is typically the cause?
6. In what ways has the sacrificial love of Jesus shaped the way you relate to others?

WRITING A NEW STORY

7. Share tips & tricks: What’s an easy step we could each take this week to invest more intentionally in our relationships?
8. Who do you know that seems to have a great marriage, and what can we learn from them?
9. What practical advice would you give someone who was finding it hard to show love & respect in a relationship season where it’s hard?

TAKING TIME TO PRAY

Jesus, thank You for loving us with a sacrificial and enduring love. Help us reflect that same love in our closest relationships. Amen.

Access our curriculum digitally through the Small Groups tab of our church's app.

