

being human

IN HIM WE LIVE AND MOVE AND HAVE OUR BEING

BOOK 3, CHAPTER 2 Sent Beings: Future-Oriented

THIS WEEK Acting Justly

For the follower of Jesus, our future informs our present. We pursue freedom in this life because we know that one day we'll be glorified with Christ. We endure suffering because we know the joy that is set before us. We act justly with our neighbors because we know the perfect Judge who will set all things right.

Together, we'll make sure that our mission is matching up with the hope we have in Christ's return. Let's live out our destiny in the here and now!

ICE BREAKER

Name a historical figure who comes to mind when you think of heroes of justice.

BOTTOM LINE

We act justly now because everything will be set right.

GROUPS SCRIPTURE

Read about the tyranny of Pharaoh in Exodus 1:8-22 + 2:23-25.

CHECK OUT TODAY'S SCRIPTURE & VIDEO AND TAKE TIME TO DISCUSS A QUESTION OR TWO FROM EACH SECTION.

LEARNING HIS STORY

1. There have always been systems of injustice in human society since the fall of man.
 - A. What comes to mind when you think of injustice in our society?
 - B. How about oppression in our society?
2. Pharaoh's tyranny took aim at children. Where do you see that in our society?
3. The people were oppressed in their work by the greed of their masters. Do you see greed leading to oppression in our society?

EXAMINING OUR STORY

4. What kind of injustice or oppression, whether big or small, have you personally encountered in your own life?
5. What kind of injustice or oppression moves your heart the most?

FINDING A NEW STORY

6. How should the promise that Jesus will return to set things right inform His disciples' mission today?
7. Brainstorm together some ways that we can individually & corporately leverage our time or resources for the sake of justice and freedom?

Access our curriculum digitally through the Small Groups tab of our church's app.

