What practical ways can you serve others this week, whether in your family, at school, or with your friends?

How can we encourage others to adopt a servant’s heart without appearing judgmental or pushy?

What does it mean to sacrifice for the team, and how can you apply this idea in your daily life?

How can you lead by example in servanthood, especially if you’re in a position of leadership or influence?

What is one specific way you can model Jesus’ servanthood in your life this week? How will you commit to doing this?
