

week three

feasting with the father

bottom line

Life and love are found in accepting the invitation to the Father's table.

corresponding teaching content

Invite your group members to watch the corresponding teaching by Pastor Andrew on LivingInhabit.com's Media page before you begin this week's discussion guide.

group icebreaker

What are some of the funniest excuses you've heard of kids giving parents or teachers?

reading scripture together

Read The Parable of the Great Feast in Luke 14:15-24.

play today's group intro video

week three

feasting with the father

suggested discussion questions

getting connected with scripture:

- What do you think it means to be invited to the Father's great feast? Consider both what it means now as well as in the age to come.
- The master said, "There is still room for more" (v22).
 - How is this good news for us?
 - How should this inform or shape our attitude toward the world around us?

getting real with each other:

- Read verses 18-19 again.
 - If you were to update these excuses for Americans in the 21st century, what do you imagine they would be?
 - Which of these excuses seem most reasonable to you and why?
 - Which kind of excuse are you most likely to give God?
- Reflection Question: Ask the Lord to shine a light on any disordered priorities in your life?

getting practical with our faith:

- What might it look like to "feast with the Father" in your every day life?
- What do you expect would change about your life as you lean into more consistent celebration of the Father's blessings?
 - Which of the Father's blessings are you most aware of today?
- How could our communication of the gospel feel more like an invitation to a feast?
- This Week: Bring Jesus to the table as you gather with friends or family.