

The Pattern of Conversion

ACTS 9:1-9; 17-22

I. Jesus Confronts Us

I. Jesus Confronts Us

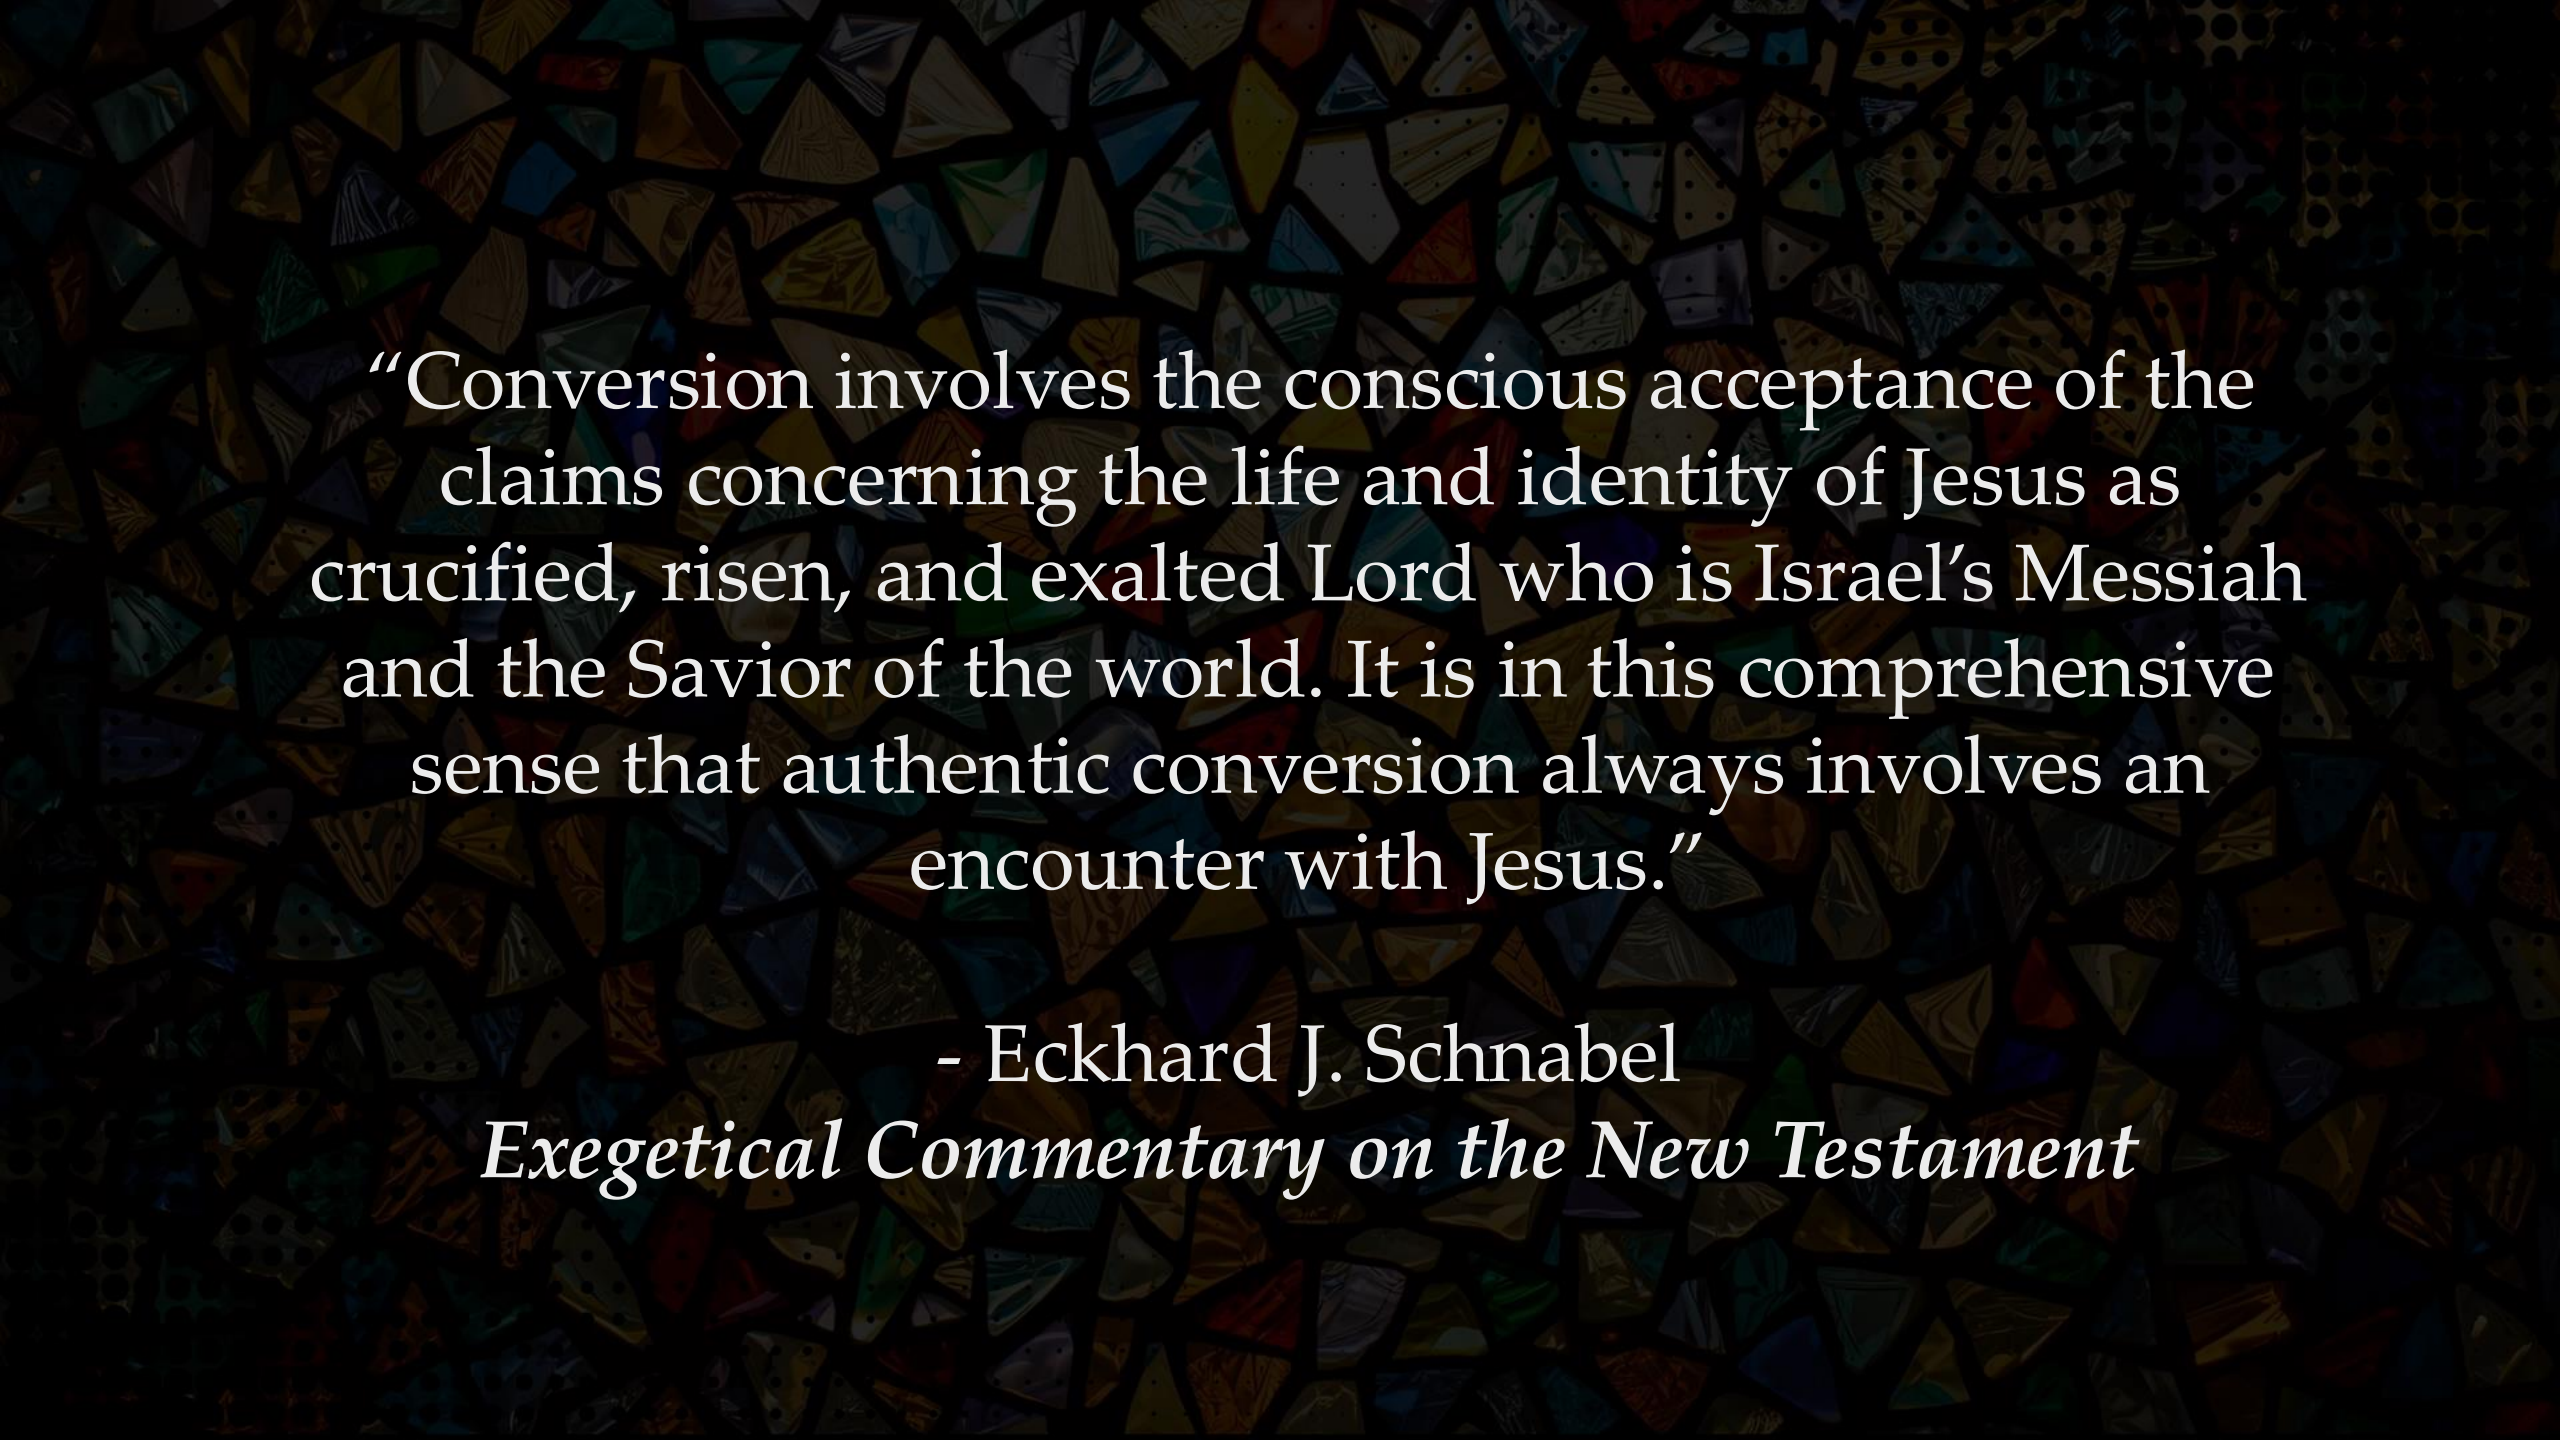

a. With the Truth of Who He is. This Truth....

I. Jesus Confronts Us

a. With the Truth of Who He is. This Truth....

i. Engages Our Mind

“Conversion involves the conscious acceptance of the claims concerning the life and identity of Jesus as crucified, risen, and exalted Lord who is Israel’s Messiah and the Savior of the world. It is in this comprehensive sense that authentic conversion always involves an encounter with Jesus.”

- Eckhard J. Schnabel

Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament

I. Jesus Confronts Us

a. With The Truth Of Who He Is. This Truth....

i. Engages Our Mind

ii. Grasps Our Heart

I. Jesus Confronts Us

a. With The Truth Of Who He Is. This Truth....

i. Engages Our Mind

ii. Grasps Our Heart

iii. Opens Our Eyes

II. Jesus Calls Us

II. Jesus Calls Us

a. To Leave Behind Our Religious Enterprises

II. Jesus Calls Us

a. To Leave Behind Our Religious Enterprises

i. Sacred Religious Enterprise

II. Jesus Calls Us

a. To Leave Behind Our Religious Enterprises

i. Sacred Religious Enterprise

ii. Secular Religious Enterprise

II. Jesus Calls Us

- a. To Leave Behind Our Religious Enterprises
 - i. Sacred Religious Enterprise
 - ii. Secular Religious Enterprise
- b. To Embrace Him As Savior And Lord

III. Jesus Changes Us

III. Jesus Changes Us

a. Paul Identifies With Christ

III. Jesus Changes Us

a. Paul Identifies With Christ

b. Paul Is Transformed By Christ

III. Jesus Changes Us

- a. Paul Identifies With Christ
- b. Paul Is Transformed By Christ
- c. Paul Communicates Christ