

Title: "Highlighting Hebrews" Part 12

Key texts: Hebrews 12 & 13

Suppl. texts: 1 Timothy 6:10, 1 Timothy 6:6

Introduction: Today, we conclude this series with a distinguishing mark and a final warning followed by exhortation.

Outline:

1. Fixing our eyes on Jesus

- From examples to witnesses.
- Sin, the most serious entanglement.
- All who run must finish well.
- Not only patiently endured but joyfully endured.
- Open hostility & opposition.

2. Enduring hardship as discipline

- A faithful father disciplines his child.
- An undisciplined child grows up selfish & domineering.
- We are genuine, not illegitimate children of God.
- Respect for God equals submission & obedience.
- The benefits of discipline, though a painful experience.

3. Living in peace

- Defined by our peaceable nature.
- A scary verse?
- Pointing to our transformed nature.

4. Continue to love one another

- Defined by our continuous love.
- Outward expressions rooted in inward love.
- True Christian love leads to Christian hospitality.
- The sacrifice of praise & thanksgiving.
- The adoration of our lips & submission of our lives.
- The weight of the ministry. Entrusted with soul care.
