Title: 'Forgetting Our Blessings'- I Thank God- Part 1

Key text: Deut. 8:10-20

Suppl. texts: Rom. 1:21

Introduction: Today, we begin a new short themed series on thankfulness. Let's discover whether we are guilty of forgetting our blessings.

1. What are the chances?
   - Less than a 4% chance.
   - Being born on any other continent.
   - You've won the worldwide lottery.
   - A higher standard of living.
   - More religious freedom, unfettered access.
   - More evangelical Christian churches.
2. Identifying your blind spots
   - Great danger in prosperity & comfort.
   - We will do anything to keep it.
   - Spends its dividends on self.
   - Selfishness is a cancer to the soul!
   - Blessings can become beloved in our lives.
   - Becoming enamored, we cast our affections.
3. When blessings are *overlooked
   - Ingratitude is another great danger.
   - When you feel empty & when you're filled.
   - Overlook the Giver & seek the gift.
   - We will forget the commands of the Lord.
   - Forgetting the Source of satisfaction.
   - Our final great danger is idolatry.
   - Gratitude is replaced by greediness.
