Title: 'Astonishing, Marvelous Faith'- The Missional Call- Part 7

Key text: Matthew 8:5-13, 23-27

Suppl. texts: Heb. 12:2, Heb. 11:6, Lk. 7:3-5, Mk. 4:35-41

Introduction: Today, we ask two questions: '*What could ever astonish Jesus?' a*nd 'How does God build our faith so that we can answer the Missional Call?'

1. The Author & *Perfecter
   - His most famous & wide-ranging sermon.
   - Intercepted by the solicitation of aid.
   - Chosen for skill, discipline, courage, & bravery.
   - A key link between the enlisted men & command.
   - Paid a higher wage than the common soldier.
2. The faithful man with a title, but no *name
   - More details & a supposed contradiction.
   - Jesus knew this was a teachable moment.
   - The centurion understood authority.
   - Note his humility mixed with faith.
3. Who* is in your boat?
   - Sudden suffering will come- the storms of life.
   - It might appear that God is absent or silent.
   - Fear will always try to overwhelm faith!
   - Jesus is there; He hears, He cares, & He responds.
   - Storms of life will pass; they don't last forever, but He does! Trust in our Sovereign God.
   - "God is still sovereign in the sudden!"
