

HANDOUT — Encourage Yourself in the Lord

Key Scripture:

1 Samuel 30:6 — “But David encouraged himself in the Lord his God.”

What It Means to Encourage Yourself

- It is the spiritual discipline of aligning your soul with God’s truth.
- It is choosing faith over feelings.
- It is speaking life when circumstances speak death.
- It is remembering God’s track record when the present feels overwhelming.

Why It Matters Today

We live in a time of constant pressure, comparison, and noise. Encouragement is no longer optional — it is a weapon. When you encourage yourself:

- Your spirit rises
- Your clarity returns
- Your authority activates
- Your prophetic hearing sharpens
- Your momentum is restored

How to Encourage Yourself

- Speak to your soul (Psalm 42:5)
- Pray in the Spirit to stir your inner man
- Worship intentionally to shift atmospheres
- Declare the Word as your sword
- Remember your testimonies as fuel for faith

Prophetic Truths to Hold

- Discouragement is demonic anesthesia — it numbs you so you won’t fight.
- Encouragement awakens your spirit and positions you to recover all.
- God has not changed His mind about your assignment.
- You are anointed for this moment in history.
