Luke 23:55-56

The women who had come with him from Galilee followed and saw the tomb and how his body was laid. Then they returned and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they Rested according to the commandment.

A photograph of a dark, rocky cave opening. The cave walls are rugged and textured, with some light-colored mineral deposits. The opening is irregularly shaped, and the light from the outside is very bright, creating a high-contrast scene. The text is overlaid on the white background of the cave's exit.

Luke 24:1

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they went to the tomb, taking the spices they had prepared.

Luke 24:2-3

And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

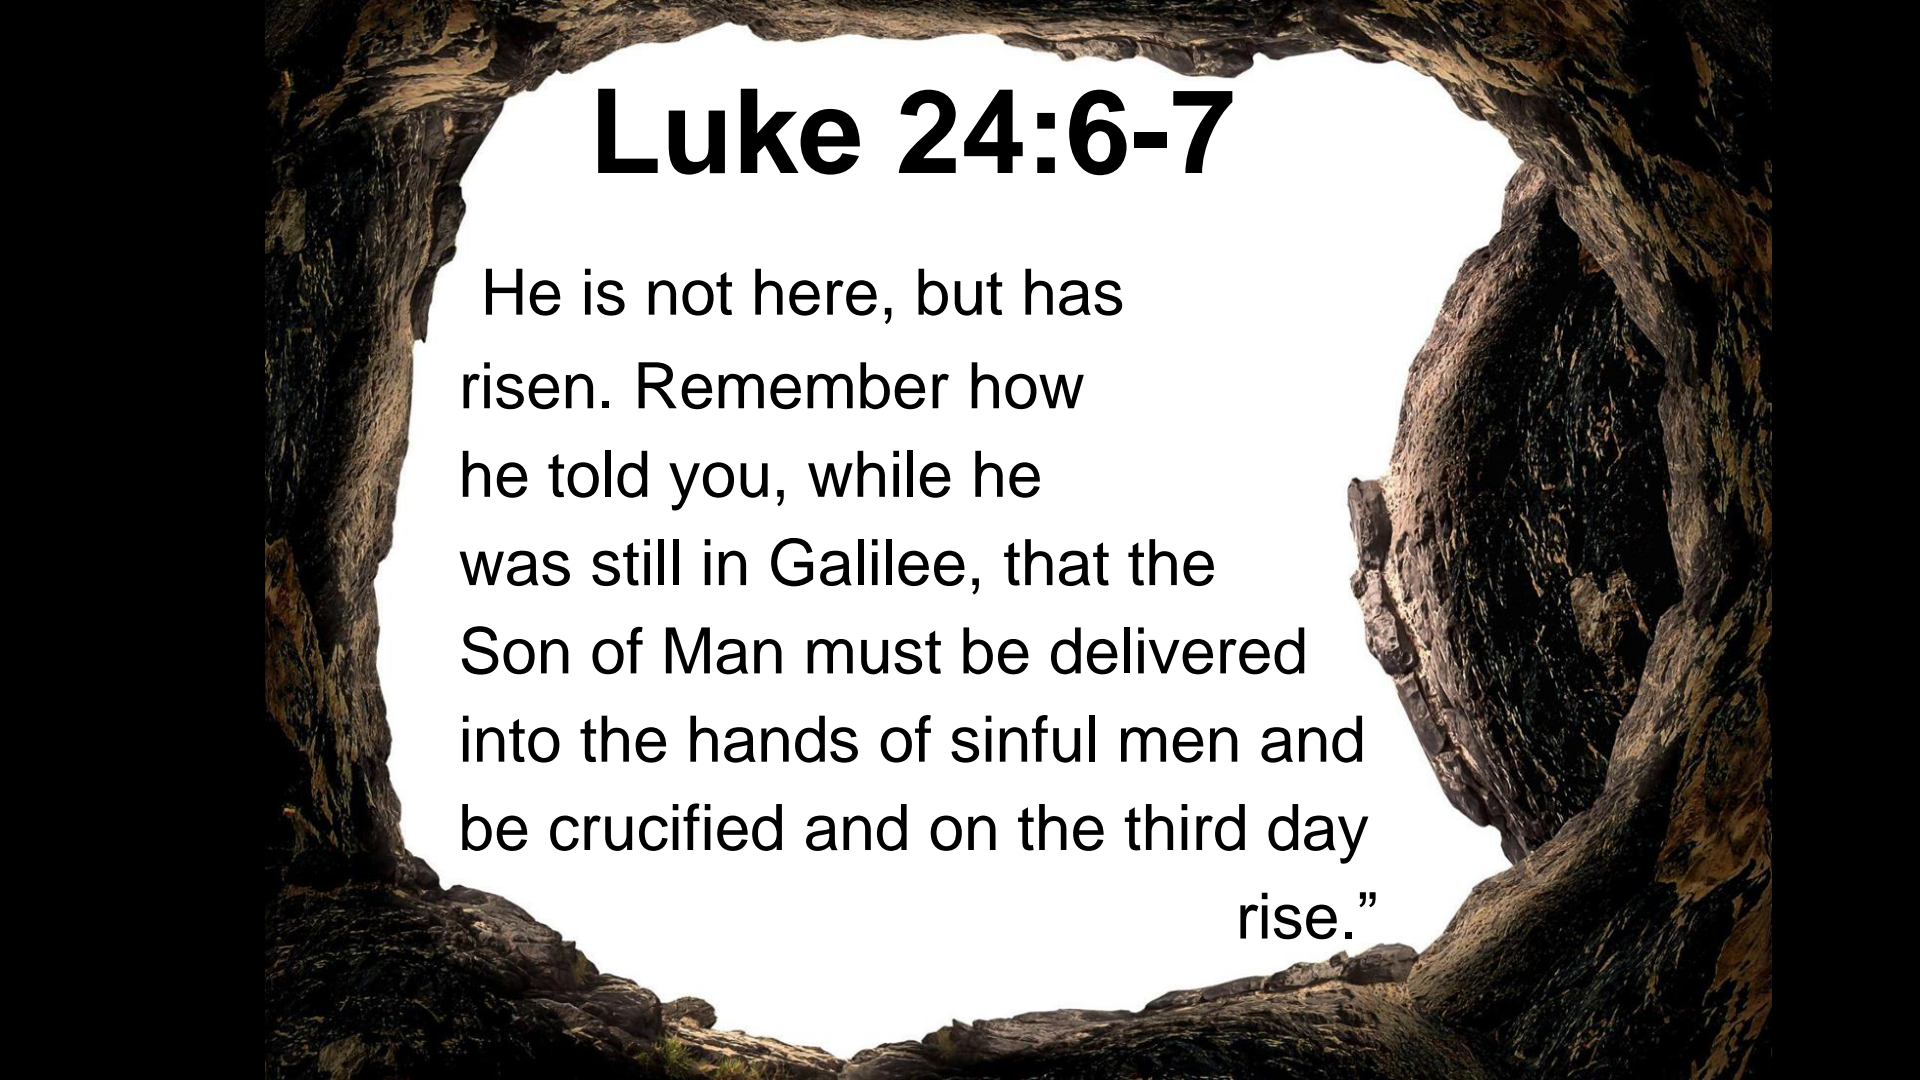

Luke 24:4

While they were perplexed about this, behold two men stood by them in dazzling apparel.

A photograph of a dark, rocky cave opening. The cave walls are rugged and textured, with some light reflecting off the surfaces. The opening of the cave is a bright white light, creating a strong contrast with the dark interior. The text is centered within this opening.

Luke 24:5

And as they were frightened and bowed their faces to the ground,
the men said to them, “Why do you seek the living among the dead?”

Luke 24:6-7

He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and on the third day rise.”

Luke 24:8

And they remembered
his words
