Ex. 12:1 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in the land
of Egypt,
2 “This month shall be for
you the beginning of months.
It shall be the first month of the year for you.

A young, light-colored lamb stands in a field of tall, golden-brown grass. The background shows a dark, hazy horizon under a sky with soft, golden light, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall mood is peaceful and natural.

Ex. 12:3 Tell all the congregation of Israel that on the tenth day of this month every man shall take a lamb according to their fathers' houses, a lamb for a household.

4 And if the household is too small for a lamb, then he and his nearest neighbor shall take according to the number of persons; according to what each can eat you shall make your count for the lamb.

Ex. 12:5 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male a year old. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats,
6 and you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month, when the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill their lambs at twilight.

The background is a textured blue surface with a painting of a flowering branch. The branch is brown and gnarled, with several white flowers and green leaves. In the bottom right corner, there is a glass of water with a reflection on the surface. The word "JEREMIAH" is written in large, bold, yellow letters with a white outline, centered horizontally across the middle of the image.
