Chap. 1

Three Reasons that These are the HARDEST Years of Your Life!

A million years ago when I was a Youth Pastor, the one encouragement that I constantly gave to the teens in my youth group was to remind them that these were the HARDEST years of their life and that everything gets Easier and Easier the older they get.

This was the Kindest and Most Helpful thing I ever shared with them.

I repeated this message constantly. I also proved it to them.

Most of my “kids” in my youth group are now in their 50s & 60s and I am still close with almost all of them. They have come back to me many hundreds of times to tell me how much it helped them that someone told them that the teen years are the HARDEST years of a person’s life.

They tell me how that was the one light of hope that got them through some dark times.

Since then, I have been a community wrestling coach in different High Schools for decades, so I have had the tremendous privilege of continuing to interact closely with teens for many years since then.

I have found that this encouragement is just as life-changing and helpful today as it was 40-50 years ago.

Here are the three major pressures that teens face that no adult will ever again face.

1. The Damaging Environment of School

I explained to them that the whole sociological aspect of “School” was a level of cruelty that was only equaled in the prison system.

I explained that the first day of college they will be shocked to realize that “Real Life” never involves hundreds of same age people thrown together with lots of free time and very little supervision.

After you leave high school, you will never again face the pack of rabid attack wolves that people call “School”.

It is only the most vulnerable and weakest 8–18-year-olds that we throw into the cold crushing torment of being permitted to be persecuted by their most vicious and sadistic peers in a huge open environment of hundreds. Once they pass the age of 18, they will never again face this open environment where it is free hunting on the weakest.

In the adult world people CHOOSE their own small groups and find immense SAFETY in each small group. Their entire adult life will be spent exclusively in small groups of people.

In addition, in the adult world you can change your job. Very few teens get a choice of what school to attend.

Surprisingly most people never tell kids that school is NOT Normal Life! Young people are very smart. Once they understand that this is a weird sociological experiment created for maximum suffering and that it forever ends once they leave high school, they can find the grace to endure.

2. The Sprinkler System of Volcanic Hormones

I explained to them their bodies and their brains go through more change in the teen years than the next 30-40 years combined.

In their brains it is like an exploding volcano in a sprinkler system.

It BURNS everywhere it goes. Our skin burns at 118 degrees and yet volcanic lava is 1,300 to 2,200 degrees.

In the same way, these hormones burn through our minds and emotions.

I explained to them that their emotions will be More Extreme and Confusing during this time than the Rest of their life COMBINED. They will feel Hate, Love, Depression, Anxiety, Frustration, and Yearning at levels that feel like their Soul is being Ripped Apart.

In other words, NO ONE can fully handle the entire hormonal bath of the teen years.

Some of these emotions need to be legitimately processed but a LOT of these emotions are simply the results of these volcanic hormones bursting all over your brain in different directions.

As a parallel, I explained to them that I also did marriage counseling.

Most teens know the real reason why their parents argue.

Teens can see that their parents often only argued because they were tired and grumpy. They could see that the “Subject” over which they were arguing was not the real issue.

In the same way, this helped the teens to see that some of their painful emotions were not because of the situation, but because of their raging hormones.

This gave them hope that life was hard now but was going to get easier as their body eventually calmed down.

3. Three massive life decisions looming in their future!

Once they pass 13 or 14 years old, every teen feels the impending doom of the avalanche of these three mountain sized boulders rolling toward them.

Very soon they must:

- i. Separate from their parents.
often painful & messy.
- ii. Find a career – Terrifying!
- iii. Find a new family – even more terrifying!

Never again in their entire life will they face such massive decisions in such a short span.

Even worse than facing these decisions is the anxiety that comes from knowing these decisions are coming and not knowing what to do.

In the BEST scenario of Fantastic Parents, Clear Career Direction and Finding a New Family, these pressures are still UNBEARABLE.

The BAD news is that very few people get BEST case scenarios.

Parents

It is extremely hard for Parents to let go of Authority and for teens to take charge of their own lives patiently and with wisdom.

In the life of most Teens there are harsh interactions with Parents that leave scars and cause great pain.

Career

Very few people find a life-long career easily. For most it is an agonizing and embarrassing process of mistakes and miss-steps. Those mistakes and miss-steps can have crushing effect on a young person's sense of security, success and hope.

Family

Hardest of all is to build your OWN family. The failure rate is so much higher than the success rate. Every teen knows this and that pressure burns in their soul like a stomach ulcer.

Chap. 2

Benefit # 1Learning to NOT RELY on your Emotions

One of the greatest life lessons anyone can learn is that most Negative Emotions are LIARS!

Sadly, many adults in their 40s and 50s are still taking BACKWARD steps because they treat their emotions as Truth.

One of the greatest benefits of the teen years is that you have are FLOODED with Lying, Deceptive, Misleading & False NEGATIVE Emotions that are trying to Destroy you.

To survive the teen years, you must learn to:

Separate Emotions from Truth.

If a teen can learn this lesson during this HARDEST time of their life, then they will be extremely successful, wise, and prosperous as adults.

When you learn to NOT TRUST your emotions, you learn:

1. Although it feels so real ...
It is NOT the truth that you really HATE your parents
2. Although it feels so real ...
It is NOT the truth that you really HATE your Sibling
3. Although it feels so real ...
It is NOT the truth that you are so DEPRESSED that you want to Die!
4. Although it feels so real ...
It is NOT the truth that this person's ABUSE makes you LESS
5. Although it feels so real ...
It is NOT the truth that ANGER makes you Stronger
6. Although it feels so real ...
It is NOT the truth that FEARS have to happen

7. Although it feels so real ...
It is NOT the truth that Pleasure can Satisfy.
8. Although it feels so real ...
It is NOT the truth that Putting someone down makes you Better
9. Although it feels so real ...
It is NOT the truth that you can NOT recover from a Broken Heart
10. Although it feels so real ...
It is NOT the truth that being KIND makes you Weak
11. Although it feels so real ...
It is NOT the truth that Skiping work makes your life Easier
12. Although it feels so real ...
It is NOT the truth that Lying helps you Avoid Problems

Once you realize that being a teen can teach you to always FILTER your emotions based on TRUTH, you will be very thankful for the pain of your teen years.

Chap. 3

Benefit # 2Learning to Ask Hard Questions!

Many people resist change.

Is tempting to STAY in the same place – even if that place is wrong.

However, Teens are FORCED to face constant change.

This is a huge benefit because it makes it easier for teens to ask Hard Questions.

I personally was not raised in a religious home. As a teen I spent 5 years deeply investigating every world religion.

Because I desperately wanted clear, logical, provable answers to hard questions, I want to offer that same blessing to others who are seeking.

That is why I wrote booklets that can be SKIMMED in 5-10 minutes.

Here are 5 booklets I offer to everyone.

1. Christianity - The ONLY Logical Religion
2. Hell – Why Would a Loving God Create an Eternal Hell?
3. The Blood of Jesus – The Most Powerful Words Ever Spoken.
4. The Cross – The Story of the Last 24 hours
5. Test Yourself – Do your Life Goals bring you LIFE?

The pain of the Teen years can give you the courage to be determined to find Truth in your life.

Chap. 4

Benefit # 3Choose your Friends - Choose your Future!

After decades of being a Wrestling Coach, I see a fascinating dynamic with each wrestling season. Personally, I think that wrestling is the hardest of all sports.

In this very tough environment, I have watched hundreds of young men spend years working closely together with other wrestlers. In this very intense environment, you see a wide range of attitudes from the worst attitudes to the best attitudes.

- A small percentage of the young men have pre-determined to consistently have a Great attitude.
- A small percentage of the young men have pre-determined to consistently have a Bad attitude.

Most young men can have Both good and bad attitudes.

Over the years, some chose friendships with the BAD attitude group.

20-30 years later, those young men
tend to have very Hard lives.

They chose their future when they chose their friends.

Over the years, some chose friendships with the GREAT attitude group.

20-30 years later, those young men
tend to have very Successful lives.

They chose their future when they chose their friends.

One of the Easiest Lessons to Grasp

So many aspects of a teen's life involve long battles. I have been pleasantly surprised to discover that pointing out the effect of friends on your adult life tends to quickly and easily awaken many teens to the importance of carefully choosing their friends.
