

WEEK # 5

TEENAGERS PART 5 THE FOUNDATION OF PARENTING

NOTE ABOUT THIS SERMON

This sermon in the Teenagers series comes from our Bible Survey series. It was added to this series because the truths presented are relevant to the subject of teenagers and aren't covered anywhere else in the course.

We are about to tap into the single most powerful verse in all the Bible on the blessing of God on your children.

ISAIAH 61:9

“Their descendants (_____) will be known (famous) among the nations and their offspring among the peoples. All who see them will acknowledge that they are a people the Lord has blessed.”

What is the FOUNDATION of PARENTING?

Two Options

I must do a _____ !	My children are _____ !
You have said this to yourself a thousand times. This is the most unchristian, nonChristlike, worldly mindset you can have. Romans 12:3 says we have to renew our minds, or get new mindsets.	Remember what Jesus did not do when the children came to Him: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Instruct the children • Play with the children • Correct or rebuke the children • Affirm or encourage the children • Try to build character into the children He did one thing: He _____ them!

Which is the most important thing in Parenting:
To affirm your children or to discipline them?

The Lord said: _____.

WEEK # 5 CON'T

The Most Important Thing in Parenting:

_____ in the _____.

- The most important gift you ever give to your children is a belief and understanding that God's Word says that on the day they were born, there was a multicolored rainbow hue of _____ that went with them.
- When you have your faith in principles rather than putting your faith in the blessing, you never feel like you get it right.
- When you believe, "My kids are blessed", you'll do all the correcting and affirming you need, but it will be birthed out of "My kids are blessed".

I must do a GOOD JOB!	My children are BLESSED!
