

Grouplife Questions – Sunday, January 26, 2020

1. If you could renovate one thing about where you live, what would it be?
2. What stood out to you from this week's sermon?
3. Read Ephesians 4:20-24. Let's talk about that new you. Maybe someone would like to share how your life changed from Old to New.
4. Spiritually, what are some new things that you would like to see happen in 2020?
5. Ephesians expresses to us an invitation of new life, of change, of freedom, and of grace that has been extended to us. Read Galatians 5:1. What do you think that freedom looks like in our everyday lives?
6. We heard about some things we need to do to experience the "out with the old, and in with the new" as a reality. Do you remember what they were? Take a minute to discuss them. Which one spoke to you the most?
7. Read Psalm 1:1-4. What does building your life on God's Word result in? Personalize what this passage means to you and share it with the group.
8. What does "In with the new" mean to you in 2020?

Challenge: Get a plan, ramp up your desire and dig into the Word this week!

Ephesians 4:20-24

That, however, is not the way of life you learned ²¹ when you heard about Christ and were taught in him in accordance with the truth that is in Jesus. ²² You were taught, with regard to your former way of life, to put off your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires; ²³ to be made new in the attitude of your minds; ²⁴ and to put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness.

Galatians 5:1

It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.

Psalms 1:1-4

Blessed is the man
Who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly,
Nor stands in the path of sinners,
Nor sits in the seat of the scornful;
² But his delight is in the law of the Lord,
And in His law he meditates day and night.
³ He shall be like a tree
Planted by the rivers of water,
That brings forth its fruit in its season,
Whose leaf also shall not wither;
And whatever he does shall prosper.
⁴ Not so the wicked!
They are like chaff
that the wind blows away.
