

Colossians – Week 2

1. What stood out to you from this week's sermon?

Read Colossians 1:15-17

2. Do you typically think of Jesus as creator? Why or why not?
3. Describe what you think it might look like to live as if everything was made for Jesus.
4. When do you find yourself forgetting that your life is completely held together by God? When is it obvious to you?

Read Colossians 1:18-23

5. Why do you think it is important for us to remember that Jesus is the head of the church?
6. God has made peace with us through Christ. What are some other ways people try to make peace with God? Why are they inadequate?
7. How have you seen Jesus' work recently in your life?

Colossians 1:15-23

15 He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. 16 For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. 17 And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. 18 And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. 19 For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, 20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. 21 And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, 22 he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, 23 if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister.
