THE PSALMIST ON WORSHIP
Eric Luptak, Worship Ministry

Psalm 95:1-11 (NIV)

¹ Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation. ² Let us come before him with thanksgiving and extol him with music and song. ³ For the Lord is the great God, the great King above all gods. ⁴ In his hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to him. ⁵ The sea is his, for he made it, and his hands formed the dry land. ⁶ Come, let us bow down in worship, let us kneel before the Lord our Maker; ⁷ for he is our God and we are the people of his pasture, the flock under his care. Today, if only you would hear his voice, ⁸ “Do not harden your hearts as you did at Meribah, as you did that day at Massah in the wilderness, ⁹ where your ancestors tested me; they tried me, though they had seen what I did. ¹⁰ For forty years I was angry with that generation; I said, ‘They are a people whose hearts go astray, and they have not known my ways.’ ¹¹ So I declared on oath in my anger, ‘They shall never enter my rest.’”

THREE EXPECTATIONS OF _____

1. LET US SING FOR _____ TO THE LORD (vs 1)

- Singing is a privilege.
- Some believers equate singing with worship exclusively.
- That's just surface level worship.

2. LET US _____ ALOUD TO THE ROCK OF OUR SALVATION (vs 1)

- All of us can sing, but not all of us can shout.
- Everybody can sing, but God has to have done something to make you shout.
- If God has not saved you, you do not have anything to shout about.

3. LET US COME BEFORE _____ WITH THANKSGIVING (vs 2)

- All of us can sing, some of us have something to shout about but most have not had an intimate encounter with God.
- An intimate encounter with God may include:
 - ✓ A moment where it's just you and God.
 - ✓ Words may leap off the screen.
 - ✓ The words of a song are yours and you own them.
 - ✓ You hear your voice above the voices of all others.

LET'S NOT JUST SING, BECAUSE WE ARE MISSING OUT ON THE FULL GLORY OF GOD
IN OUR CORPORATE WORSHIP.
