

No matter your past or the decisions you've made, God's forgiveness and grace is extended to you through Jesus Christ. As we experience God's grace in our own life, we in turn, should show His grace to others. Grace is greater.

Questions

What part of the message stood out to you the most? Why?

Jesus commanded the woman to "go and sin no more." Is there any sin in your life that you need to close the door on today? What steps can you take to move forward and trust Jesus?

How is your compassion for others these days? Think about the people in your life. Is there anyone that is expecting judgement from you, but instead, you could extend mercy and forgiveness to?

What are 1-2 ways you can begin to apply what you learned in the message this week?

Go out of your way to extend grace and love to everyone around you this week. So often we're quick to judge, instead, ask God to help you see those who may need to experience His grace.

Commit to Memory: Romans 8:1

Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who belong to Christ Jesus.
