

One of the ways Jesus describes the relationship He wants with us is that of a good shepherd to his sheep. Jesus wants to be our shepherd. He wants to offer us guidance and walk with us in every season of life.

Questions

What part of the message stood out to you the most? Why?

What does it mean to “hear/recognize the voice of the shepherd”? How do we hear his voice? Whose voice do you turn to for advice?

How close are you to Jesus? Are you in trouble and may not even know it? What are some ways we can get close enough to hear His voice?

How does the analogy of sheep following their shepherd relate to our following Jesus? How do we know when we are following him?

What are 1-2 ways you can begin to apply what you learned in the message this week?

Commit to Memory: John 10:14-15

I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep and my sheep know me—just as the Father knows me and I know the Father—and I lay down my life for the sheep.
