

Pt. 1: The 2nd Greatest Comeback Story Of All Time

Questions for further study and application:

Day 1 You may feel as though you've strayed too far or done too much, but it's never too late for a comeback. It does not matter what poor decisions you have made in the past. God wants you to know that no matter your past decisions or if you slip up, it doesn't matter. He's right here, waiting for you. Read James 4:8. What area of your life needs a comeback? Is it your family, your job, or maybe your relationship with God? This week, draw near to God and pray on that specific area. Put your faith in God and He will pull you through.

Day 2 There may be times when you are facing a difficult or frustrating situation and all you want to do is run away. You think a change of scenery or a different job will help you avoid facing challenges in your life. Here's the thing, most people have a tendency to run from what they don't want to face. Yet, the end result of running always boils down to being stuck. The only way to get unstuck is to involve God. Read Psalm 144:2. God is your shield, your fortress, and He loves you. Ask God today to give you the courage and strength you need to move forward and overcome the challenges you face.

Day 3 Hitting a wall can look different for everyone. It could be that you're chasing the wrong type of relationship, or you get wrapped up in climbing the corporate ladder and lost focus of what's most important in life. Maybe you've given in to other temptations that have lead you down a dead end road leaving you feeling empty and alone. You can overcome those feelings of emptiness by putting God first. Read Proverbs 3:6. Prioritize God and start your day with Him; before anyone or anything else. Be still and listen so you can focus on Him leading you. Put Him first in whatever area of your life you want Him to bless.

Day 4 You may think that because of your past mistakes that you can't make a complete comeback. That you can never really be accepted or fully forgiven. Here's the thing to remember, all you have to do is be willing to return to God. So, don't let anything hold you back from God's grace and forgiveness. Don't let guilt and doubt hold you back from receiving God's blessings. Read 1 John 1:9 and Exodus 34:6. When you have doubts about returning to God, remember how He is described in these verses. He's faithful, He's compassionate, He's abounding in love, and He's forgiving.

Day 5 When you think about a comeback, it may feel like an overwhelming or impossible feat. You might be wondering where to even start. It all starts with a simple prayer. It could be as easy as saying, "Jesus I need you. I can't do this alone." Everyone needs a comeback at some point and time, and the good news is God is always there and ready for you. His plan for you is good, regardless of past mistakes or whatever season you may currently find yourself in. Read Acts 3:19. Let God wipe away your sins and refresh you. It's time for a comeback!
