Sermon Discussion Questions - January 2 & 4, 2025

Matthew: Part 2 - Sermon on the Mount

Matthew 5:1-12 (Beatitudes)

Ice Breaker: The Beatitudes are famous for starting with the phrase, “Blessed are the...”

- Q1: When you hear the word “blessed,” what do you usually think of in everyday life? How do people tend to use that word today?

Read Matthew 5:1-12 together. Jesus presents a vision of the “blessed life” that’s very different from the world’s idea.

- Q2: Which Beatitude feels the most surprising or countercultural to you right now?
- Q3: Which Beatitude feels hardest for you to live out in this current season of your life?

Jesus begins His message by saying that those who are “poor in spirit” are blessed.

- Q4: What might it look like to depend more on God rather than relying on your own strength in your current season?

Jesus also says that those who mourn are blessed because they will be comforted.

- Q5: Have you experienced God's presence or comfort in moments of loss, disappointment, or unmet expectations recently? What did that look like?

As Christians, we are called to "hunger and thirst for righteousness".

- Q6: What does "hungering and thirsting for righteousness" look like beyond personal morality—at work, in relationships, or in your community?

Jesus also addresses the merciful, the pure in heart, and the peacemakers.

- Q7: Is there someone you find it difficult to show mercy to right now? What might a small step toward mercy look like?
- Q8: What's the difference between keeping the peace and making peace? Where might God be inviting you to step into tension or conflict with wisdom and love?

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus shows that the Kingdom of Heaven is breaking into the world here and now.

- Q9: As you look ahead to this week, how might the Holy Spirit be inviting you to reflect or embody God's kingdom to the people around you?

Take a few minutes to encourage each other, and spend some time in prayer together!
