

Cornerstone Men

Cornerstone Men equips men to follow Jesus, connect in community, and grow in their faith.

cornerstonechurch.community/men

Cornerstone Women

Cornerstone Women's mission is to help women follow Jesus through growth in community at Cornerstone Church.

cornerstonechurch.community/women

Sermon Discussion Questions - January 30 & February 1, 2026Matthew: Part 2 - Sermon on the Mount*Matthew 5:27-30

Ice Breaker: This week's passage brought up some heavy (but highly relevant) topics.

- Q1: As you think back over the sermon or passage, what was one phrase, idea, or image that stuck with you—even if you're still chewing on it?

Read Matthew 5:27-30 together. Jesus keeps shifting the focus from outward actions to what's going on in the heart.

- Q2: Why do you think that shift matters so much—not just when it comes to sexual sin, but for following Jesus in general?

Jesus frames lust as something that dehumanizes—turning people into objects rather than image-bearers

- Q3: In what ways does our culture encourage that kind of seeing? Where do you notice it showing up most easily?

Jesus doesn't just talk about what we do, but the root problems underneath the actions.

- Q4: What are some underlying things—like stress, loneliness, boredom, insecurity, or exhaustion—that can make lust more tempting or harder to resist?

The Gospel meets us in a world where sexualized content feels almost unavoidable.

- Q5: In that reality, what does wisdom look like—both in how we try to limit exposure and how we respond when we're exposed anyway?

Jesus uses extreme language about removing an eye or hand—not to shock us into shame, but to show us what's at stake.

- Q6: What would it look like for you to get ruthless with your sin—sexual or otherwise?

The sermon reminded us that fighting sin is never a solo project—we need other believers!

- Q7: Why do you think community, honesty, and accountability are so important in this area—even though they can feel awkward or uncomfortable?
- Q8: As you reflect this week, where might the Holy Spirit be nudging you toward confession, support, or deeper accountability?

Take a few minutes to encourage each other, and spend some time in prayer together!