About the Day of Reformation

Reformation Day is commemorated on October 31 each year, and LCMS congregations often hold special services on the preceding or following Sunday. On the Day of Reformation, we reflect on how Martin Luther, by the grace of God, brought the church’s focus back to God’s free gift of salvation in Jesus Christ. Luther’s famous saying, “Sola Gratia, Sola Fide, Sola Scriptura,” reminds us that we are saved by grace alone, through faith alone, and that we are given Scripture (the Holy Bible) alone as the only true Word of God.

A Note to Parents

We believe children are God’s children too, which means they are as much a part of the church as everyone else. Therefore, children of all ages are always welcome in the worship service.

However, we completely understand that kids can get restless during the service, and we understand the challenges of getting children accustomed to being in the service the whole time. We want to assist you in helping your children learn to participate in a meaningful way. We offer these opportunities for children to participate in service, and for them to take breaks when needed:

Children’s Message | Children are invited to come forward for a brief message of teaching and prayer. Parents are welcome to accompany small children as needed. (Offered every other Sunday)

Nursery | When parents need a place for their children during worship, a children’s room is available down the main hallway on the left.

Nursing Mom’s Corner | Available inside the nursery.

Welcome and Invocation

We begin our worship in the Name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Affirmation of Faith

The Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer of the Day

Almighty and gracious Lord, pour out Your Holy Spirit on Your faithful people. Keep us steadfast in Your grace and truth, protect and deliver us in times of temptation, defend us against all enemies, and grant to Your Church Your saving peace; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Offerings of Thanksgiving

Online offerings may be given by following the QR code found below and on the giving card in the pew. The card may then be placed in the offering plate

Everything we have is a gift from God. In thanksgiving for His grace in Christ Jesus, we joyfully give from what He has entrusted to us. Together, our offerings support the ministry of Immanuel, share the Gospel with our neighbors, and care for those in need. Thank you for your faithful giving in support of this ministry.

We stand for prayer.

Prayers and Petitions

After each petition:

...Lord, in Your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Loving Father, though our sins deserve Your judgment, forgive us for the sake of Your Son. Protect us from all harm to body and soul, and be our refuge and strength in every time of need. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.

Gracious God, in every age You have raised up faithful servants to proclaim Your Word and call Your people back to the Gospel. We thank You for Your prophets and apostles, and for Martin Luther and others who stood firmly on the truth of Your Word. Give us courage to confess our faith when others would silence us, and keep us focused on the good news of Jesus Christ, crucified and risen for our salvation. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.

Heavenly Father, bless all who proclaim the saving name of Jesus throughout the world. Through Your Word, strengthen the faith of Your people and bring others to know the Joy of Salvation in Christ. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.

God of grace, when our world is shaken, remind us that You are our refuge. You know the physical, mental, and spiritual struggles we face. Bring help and healing to all who are in need, [especially _____], and comfort them with Your promise that You are with them. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.

Lord Jesus, through Your death and resurrection, You have secured our forgiveness. As we receive Your body and blood in Holy Communion, lead us to come with repentant hearts, trusting Your promise. Strengthen our faith and assure us that our sins are forgiven. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.

Preserve Your Church, O Lord, and keep each of us firmly rooted in the Gospel. Do not let us turn away from the truth or place our trust in anything other than Christ. Sustain us in faith throughout our lives, until we stand before You with all Your people and receive the eternal life You have promised. through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name, Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For Thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

First Reading – Revelation 14:6-7

⁶Then I saw another angel flying directly overhead, with an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on earth, to every nation and tribe and language and people. ⁷And he said with a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come, and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water."

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Epistle Reading – Romans 3:19-28

¹⁹Now we know that whatever the law says it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. ²⁰For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin.

²¹But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law, although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— ²²the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: ²³for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, ²⁴and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, ²⁵whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. ²⁶It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.

²⁷Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. ²⁸For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading – John 8:31-36

³¹So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, “If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, ³²and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.” ³³They answered him, “We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, ‘You will become free’?”

³⁴Jesus answered them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. ³⁵The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. ³⁶So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.”

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

♪ Yet Not I But Through Christ in Me

For my life is wholly bound to His.

Oh, how strange and divine, I can sing: all is mine!

Yet not I, but through Christ in me.

2. The night is dark, but I am not forsaken,
For by my side the Savior, He will stay.
I labor on in weakness and rejoicing,
For in my need, His power is displayed.
To this I hold: my Shepherd will defend me.
Through the deepest valley He will lead.
Oh, the night has been won, and I shall overcome!
Yet not I, but through Christ in me.

3. No fate I dread, I know I am forgiven,
The future sure, the price, it has been paid.
For Jesus bled and suffered for my pardon,
And He was raised to overthrow the grave.
To this I hold: my sin has been defeated.
Jesus now, and ever, is my plea.
Oh, the chains are released, I can sing: I am free!
Yet not I, but through Christ in me.

4. With ev'ry breath I long to follow Jesus,
For He has said that He will bring me home.
And day by day I know He will renew me
Until I stand with joy before the throne.
To this I hold: my hope is only Jesus.

Confessing our Sins and Receiving God's Forgiveness

O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is Your Name in all of the earth.
To You we give thanks, for You are good and Your mercy endures forever.

See the back of the bulletin for space for sermon notes

I will offer to You the sacrifice of thanksgiving and will call upon the Name of the Lord.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit. A broken and contrite heart, O God, You will not despise.

If we confess our sins, You are faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

O come, let us worship and bow down. Let us bow before the Lord our Maker, humbly confessing our sins.

Most holy and almighty God, our Savior, I acknowledge my transgressions to You. I, like a sheep gone astray, have turned to my own way. I have sinned and have done wicked things. The good that I knew to do I have not done, and in all my work, I have been an unprofitable servant and have come short of Your glory. Help me, O God of my salvation, for the glory of Your Name; and deliver me, and purge away my sin, for the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Hear what the Lord says: "I, truly I, am He Who blots out your transgressions for My Own sake and will not remember your sins. Go, and sin no more."

♪ Lord Have Mercy

1. Jesus, I've forgotten the words that You have spoken;
Promises that burned within my heart have now grown dim;
With a doubting heart I follow the paths of earthly wisdom;
Forgive me for my unbelief, renew the fire again.

Chorus:

Lord, have mercy; Christ, have mercy;

Lord, have mercy on me;

Lord, have mercy; Christ, have mercy;

Lord, have mercy on me.

These “Words of Institution” tell us what the gift is and what its benefits are: His true body and blood for the forgiveness of our sins. The pastor speaks, but the Words are Christ’s.

Sacrament of Holy Communion

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, King of all creation, for You have had mercy on us and given Your only-begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life. We give You thanks for the redemption You have prepared for us through Jesus Christ. Grant us Your Holy Spirit that we may faithfully eat and drink of the fruits of His Cross and receive the blessings of forgiveness, life, and salvation that come to us in His body and blood. Amen.

The Words of Jesus

Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to the disciples and said: “Take, eat; this is My ✠ body, which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me.”

In the same way also He took the cup after supper, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying: “Drink of it, all of you; this cup is the new testament in My ✠ blood, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.”

Proclamation of Christ

As often as we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim the Lord’s death until He comes.

Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

The Peace of the Lord

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

And also with you. Amen.

If this is not your confession or if you are an unconfirmed child, we ask you cross your arms and receive a blessing.

As you prepare to receive the Holy Supper, please read Notes about Holy Communion on page 17.

The pastor, and those who assist him, distribute to those who come to receive, saying:

“Take, eat; this is the true body of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, given into death for your sins. Amen.”

“Take, drink; this is the true blood of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, shed for the forgiveness of your sins. Amen.”

Confessional Affirmation

I recognize and confess that I am a sinner. I repent of my sin and ask God’s forgiveness. I believe that Jesus Christ is my only Lord and Savior from sin, satan, and death.

I believe that the risen Christ is really present in the Sacrament and, under the form of the bread and wine, I receive His true body and blood for the forgiveness of my sin and the strengthening of my faith and life.

I resolve to dedicate my life to the service of my Lord in His Body, the Church, by regular group worship, cheerful giving, thankful living, and sharing the Gospel with others. Amen.

Notes About Holy Communion

What is Communion?

As Christians, we confess that we receive the true body and blood of Christ--in, with, and under the bread and wine--in our hands and in our mouths. This is a profound wonder and unexplainable mystery.

We take the words "This is my body" and "This is my blood" at face value because God's Word clearly teaches that in the sacrament, the bread and wine are a communion, or participation, in the body and blood of Christ.

In the Sacrament, we receive forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation. For where there is forgiveness of sins, there is also life and salvation.

How Do I Receive Communion?

Receiving the body and blood of Christ is a sacred moment. You will be directed by the ushers to come forward. You may choose to come to the rail or commune by continuous flow. Those coming to the rail may immediately kneel and be served. Once served, you may return to your seat. Those choosing continuous flow will be served while standing as the line moves. Everyone will receive the wafer in an open hand, one on top of the other. Individual cups and a common cup are offered. Take an individual cup from the tray. If you prefer to take the common cup, it is acceptable to touch the base of the cup to control the tilt so that you receive an appropriate amount. Take empty cups with you and place in the receptacles on your way down the steps. Gluten-free wafers are available. The center ring of the communion trays contains low-alcohol wine.

For those who cannot approach the rail, we are happy to provide distribution in the pews. You may inform the elder in advance of the service that you will need communion in the pews, or, raise your hand when the elder comes by.

Who May Commune?

The Lord's Supper is a testimony to our unity in the faith. This Sacrament is given for those who confess Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and desire to follow Him. We ask that those who are baptized, who believe that Christ is truly present in, with, and under the bread and wine, and who have confirmed their faith, come forward to receive the Sacrament. Those who hold a different confession of faith are welcome to come forward for a blessing. To indicate this, please cross your arms over your chest.

Scripture calls us to receive this sacred meal with reverence and self-examination. As written in 1 Corinthians 11:28-29: "Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself."

It is our desire that you join us at the Lord's Table. Please speak with a pastor or elder if you would like more information.

Children of all ages are welcome to accompany you at the rail or the walk with you through the line for continuous flow. In doing so, they learn the importance of Holy Communion even as they receive a prayer of blessing.

Prayer Before Communing

Dear Savior, at Your gracious invitation we come to Your table to eat and drink Your holy body and blood. Let us find favor in Your eyes to receive this holy Sacrament in faith for the salvation of our souls and to the glory of Your holy name; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
