OFFERING HOPE TO ALL WHO THIRST

DO YOU SEE?

It is quite possible to sit with Jesus and still miss Him.

I. _____

a. Luke 7:36
b. An invitation doesn't mean _____

II. _____

a. Luke 7:37-38
b. We can become so focused on identifying what's wrong in someone else's life, that we fail to recognize that God might be doing to make things right.

III. Blindness of _____

a. Luke 7:39
b. Simon was so focused on her _____ that he missed the _____ that was happening right in front of him.
c. Transformation isn't pretending the past never happened; it means refusing to make the past the only thing that matters.

IV. The _____

a. Luke 7:40-43
b. Is it possible Simon knew the right answer without recognizing what the answer revealed about himself?

V. Do you see this _____?

a. Luke 7:44-47

b. By refusing to look past her past, Simon is creating another obstacle for her to overcome.

VI. Do you see _____?

a. He couldn't see her because he was blinded by his _____.

Micah 6:8

Hosea 11:4

Jonah 4:2

We don't get to come onto this holy ground because we have it altogether. We needed God's grace to get here, and we need God's grace to stay here.

May he grace we celebrate and remember at the table be the same grace people experience when they encounter us. May the grace we celebrate and remember at the table be the same grace this city experiences when we exit this holy ground and enter the mission field God has placed before us.
