BE RECONCILED PART 2
MATTHEW 5:23-24

Ephesians 1:27

Colossians 1:10

Romans 12:2

It is not enough to just _____ church, we _____ church.

I. _____

A. It is entirely possible to be engaged in _____ worship and still be _____.

B. Romans 12:1

C. 1 Samuel 15:22

D. Isaiah 1:15

E. Amos 5:23-24

II. _____

A. God holds us responsible for the harm we feel just as much as the harm we cause

B. Proverbs 6:3 Don't _____ in making things _____

C. _____ obedience is still _____

III. _____

A. 2 Corinthians 5:18

If God crossed the great divide to reconcile you and me back to Him, there's no reason you and me can't _____ to set our relationships straight.

Worship without _____ is incomplete.

Spiritual _____ shows up in _____ humility.

The way we treat others _____ what we truly believe about God.

_____ relationships harm our relationship with Him.

When our relationships are properly positioned; not only do we show the world what Heaven looks like, we are engaged in active worship.

The Gospel is lived out when Christians practice reconciliation among themselves and exemplify it before their neighbors. The Ambassadors for reconciliation have the opportunity to promote peacemaking in communities rife with factions, distrust, and mutual suspicions. Michael Bird
