

I. Two Types of Treasure in Life (19-21)

A. Our temporary treasure is addressed (19) - "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal..."

1. The responsibility for this treasure- "Do not lay up for yourselves..."
2. The reservoir for this treasure - "...treasures on earth..."
3. The ruin of this treasure - "...where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal..."

B. Our true treasure is addressed (20) - "...but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal."

1. The responsibility for this treasure - "...but lay up for yourselves..."
2. The reservoir for this treasure - "...treasures in heaven..."
3. The resiliency of this treasure - "...where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal..."

C. Our most trusted treasure is addressed (21) - "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also."

II. Two Types of Vision in Life (22-23)

A. The spiritual vision for life (22) - "The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light..."

1. This focus is simple - "...if your eye is healthy..."
2. This focus is saturating - "...your whole body will be full of light..."

B. The blurred vision for life (23a) - "...but if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness..."

1. This focus is darkened - "...if your eye is bad..."
2. This focus is destitute - "...your whole body will be full of darkness..."

C. The blind vision in life (23b) - "...If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!"

III. Two Types of Masters in Life (24)

A. An undeniable fact - "No one can serve two masters..."

B. An undivided loyalty - "...for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other."

C. An uncomfortable truth - "You cannot serve God and money."
