

Episode 3 - Hunting: The First Sport

What is the morality based upon for a Christian? How is this applied to hunting?

What do Genesis 2, Genesis 9:1-5, and Genesis 25 all imply about hunting?

What is the problem with seeing animal life and human life as being of equal value?

What temptations are shared between those who are active in the sports of hunting and those who play more mainstream sports?

What are the virtues that can be learned from participating in sports like hunting?
