ADULT MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

YOUNG ADULT'S ROOTED MINISTRY: Join us Thursday, October 3, as we continue the series, "Theology Matters: What we believe and how it changes us." We will worship, sit under Biblical teaching, and have discussions in community groups beginning at 7:45pm. Come at 7:00pm for a free meal. Rooted meets at 6651 Scott St in Allendale. Contact Brian Boom at boom@frchudsonville.org if you'd like to carpool.

BE SURE OF YOUR SALVATION: Today's "Hard Question" is "Am I Really Saved?" After Pastor Shawn's sermon, grab an article from one of the "Want More?" racks located on the bulletin tables. Each week the Adult Education Discipleship Team provides enrichment articles based on the morning sermon.

IN THE OPEN GATE next Sunday, October 6, Alton Voss (former GVSU football player) will share his testimony. Alton has a powerful conversion story that he wants you to hear. He is currently serving as a counselor at the Rockland Treatment Center providing faith-based counseling and treatment for those going through emotional, psychological, spiritual, and medical dilemmas in their lives.

BIBLE STORY GRANDMAS: This week's story is, "Joshua and the Big Wall." Parents: don't forget to take a follow-up sheet when you pick up your child from the Toddler Nursery. These sheets will give you insight into the story read to your child, and provide a list of the upcoming stories and readers.

NATIONAL BRING YOUR BIBLE TO SCHOOL DAY is Thursday, October 3. This is a wonderful opportunity for students to be a quiet testimony to their classmates and their teachers as well. Parents and grandparents, take a few minutes to discuss with your children ways that they can share their relationship with Christ when asked about their Bibles. Check out the BYBS website for further information at <https://www.bringyourbible.org/>.

ADULTS ARE REMINDED that there are four options for growth every Sunday morning during the Sunday School Hour. The Sunday School Guide Class meets in Room 109; the Men's Bible Study Class meets in Room 108; the Women's Bible Study Class meets in the Music Room; the Open Gate convenes in the Fellowship Hall. Make Sunday school a part of your Sunday worship experience every week.

THURSDAY MORNING WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY begins this week, October 3, with the study of 2 Timothy using the DVD series, "Entrusted," by Beth Moore. We meet in Room 107 from 9:45-11:30am. If you missed the sign-up but want to join this class, please call Joyce Jansen at 797-4246 to register.

"THE IMPORTANCE OF FATHERS": Plan now to participate in our four-week seminar on the importance of fathers. Beginning on October 27, the Open Gate Sunday School Class will welcome Phil Hamberg as our seminar leader. This series will briefly cover the differences between the male and female brain, then go into some startling statistics regarding the involvement of fathers in the lives of children. The father's importance and influence will shock and amaze you on the development of children from infancy through adulthood. Each week will cover different significant influences that fathers have in the lives of their children. The last week will stress the importance of loving discipline and commendation and how important men/fathers are in the introduction of Christ and God the Father.

SAVE THE DATE: The Men's Spring Training Retreat to Grace Adventures will be March 20-22, 2020. Our speaker will be Bruce Martin, an avid outdoorsman, who founded an outdoor adventure ministry called Born 2 Be Wild. For more information, contact Nick Wabeke at 218-5083 or nick.wabeke@gmail.com.
