

Kids and Attachment

When Phil talks about investing in others, what comparison does Phil make?

Genesis teaches that what is the foundational, or first human attachment we were created to make? What does that mean for your kids?

Who/what is the biggest influence in your child's life? Do you believe that this is true according to God's design?

What are the attachment activities that Phil lists?

How do you help your child learn Biblical disciplines like self-control and empathy? What passage does Pastor Tim bring up concerning empathy?

How do you spell love?

What does John 3:16 teach us about active love? What is the opposite of love?
