Announcements

FBC Fall Festival

Our Fall Festival will be held next Sunday, October 26, from 4-6 pm. Due to construction, we will have inflatables in the parking lot across from the MPR and Trunk or Treat along Harry Charles Street. And of course we will have free food! If you would like to help with either the inflatables or Trunk or Treat, please contact Chris Dewaal. We need LOTS of candy to give away, so donations of individually wrapped candy are very much appreciated. Drop off the candy in the office during the week or place the candy in the marked boxes in the MPR, the Sanctuary vestibule or the Adult Sunday School hallway on Wednesday and Sunday. Thank you for your help -we could not do this without you!

Minister Appreciation Month

Each year the Alabama Baptist State Convention designates the month of October as "Minister Appreciation Month". We are extremely blessed here at First Baptist with ministers that have a love for our Lord and a heart for service. Please take some time during the month of October to let them know how much they are loved and appreciated. The Deacons encourage you to show your appreciation to John, Tim, Mark, Chris Dewaal, Chris Gold, Kim, Ronnie and Tammy with notes and cards recognizing and thanking them for their love for us and their service to our church.

Baptist Women

The Baptist Women will be joining the Oasis Sunday School class to hear an update from missionary Emerald Ford on Tuesday, October 28, at 5:45 in Petros. Come join us!

Thanksgiving Box Giveaway

In conjunction with the Christian Love Pantry, FBC will again be providing food boxes consisting of 40 lbs of dry goods, a turkey and produce to 175 qualifying St. Clair County households. The boxes will be given out at First Baptist on Saturday, November 22, from 9-10 am.

You can help by purchasing a box for one of these families.

Cost: $25/Box

Make checks payable to FBC and designate it for "Food Boxes". Thank you for always helping us show the love of God to our community!
