September 22-25, you have the opportunity to participate in local missions' activities at two locations right here in St. Clair County. On Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 22-23, we'll be working at WorldSong, the WMU sponsored camp. We will be painting/staining decks and doing general yard work. On Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 24-25, we will be at the Alabama Sheriffs Boys Ranch. Our responsibilities will include completion of a horse tack room, lawncare and distributing copies of the Gospel of John to youth and ranch staff. Please be aware that our responsibilities may change once we get on site depending on what is needed that day. We'll meet at the church each day at 8 am and carpool to these locations. Wear outside work clothes and shoes/boots and bring your water bottle. If you have a weed eater, please bring it for work at the Boys Ranch. Lunch will be provided by the host sites and we will work until around 2-3 pm each day. Please sign up on the form on our Facebook page to give us an idea on how many people to plan for.
