

BREAK  FREE

QUESTIONS

What is a physical item(s) that you have seen restored?

What is an item you have you hope someday could be restored? Why would you want to see it restored?

Share with us your baptism story? What made you say yes to taking the step?

READ 2 CORINTHIANS 5:17-21.

What verb tenses does Paul use in verse 17?

Why is it significant that you are (present tense) a new creation? In what sense are you a new creation?

If the old things have passed away and the new things have come, why do you think we still struggle with sin?

How does it change your perspective of pursuing holiness and godliness to know that you already are a new creation in Christ instead of trying to become a new creation?

If you don't understand that you are a new creation, how will it change your approach to doing good and practicing righteousness?

What, according to these verses, happened to our sin when we became a new creation?

Why is it important to know that in order for us to become righteous in God's sight that Jesus had to become sin?

Where in your life right now are you most tempted to prove yourself worthy? How does knowing you are a saint free you from that need?

Is there any particular behavior in your life that does not reflect who God has made you to be? How does remembering that you are a saint speak to that behavior?

What is one practical way you can remind yourself tomorrow that you are already a saint?