

QUESTIONS

What are three words you would use to describe yourself?

What is something in your life that has or currently demands more and more of you?

Read Mathew 23:4 What are examples of heavy loads you have believed religion brings?

Tell me about a time you allowed Jesus to be king of your life. How did that bring you freedom?

What steps might you take for Jesus to go from consultant to king in your life?

How will you seek first his kingdom this week?