

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Principle 1- The truth will set you free

Principle 2: Love cares about the person more than the person's feelings

What is your favorite breakup song?

Share a time when you had to live with a lie you created.

Why are we sometimes tempted to lie instead of telling the truth?

When have you benefited from being truthful? In what areas of life can you more actively speak the truth?

When were you glad someone was truthful with you, even though it may have initially hurt?

As you seek to apply these principles, what do you need to put off so that you may put on love for others better?
