DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Principle 1: Great relationships are experienced by someone who is satisfied single.

Application: Live in community where you will see this in others.

In a non-romantic way, who is someone you have noticed because you are living in the same community as them that you otherwise wouldn't have?" // What about them made an impression on you? What makes them special?

Principle 2: I want to be committed to someone who knows how to love not worship.

Application: Walk away from worshippers and pursue lovers.

What is the difference between love and worship?

What drives our desired to be worshipped?

What are the lies we tell ourselves of why we need to be worshipped (appreciated)? // How has that effected you when you do/don't receive that acknowledgment?

Read Philippians 2:3 together - Whats the best way you can love others better than yourself this week?

Principle 3: Don't be unequally yoked.

Application: Value and pursue those who build you up spiritually.

Application: Date those who are on mission with you!

Application: Date those who are pursuing God the way you are.

Who are the people in your life who has built you up spiritually? What did that look like?

Who is the person you can build up this week?
